

Mitch Watson

Mitch was born and raised in Garden City. He attended the Presbyterian Church in Garden City before he moved to Oklahoma to begin college. After receiving his BA in Communication, and a M.Ed. in Teaching and Learning, he spent several years teaching in Lawton. When his wife Ayrika had the opportunity to return to their hometown for a career opportunity, the Watson family returned home! Mitch teaches English at Lakin High School. He directs a musical every year and also coaches Forensics.
